

Phonics

Friday 27th March.

- On Fridays we use games to consolidate our learning in phonics. I have included a 'Roll and Read' mat for each of the sounds we looked at this week.

(Instructions - roll a die and pick one of the words on that line to read if you get it right you score a point.)

- I have also included links to the Phonics Play website which is currently free to access using the login details shown. There are now two versions on the website and the new version can be accessed on tablets and phones.

Please choose from Phase 4 and Phase 5 activities.

Coronavirus Update

In response to the ongoing situation, we have decided to make PhonicsPlay free to use during this period. Children can use the site at home without their parents needing to subscribe. To access our resources all you need to do is log on using the following details.

Username: march20 Password: home

We are currently very close to completing a new version of the PhonicsPlay site that is accessible on all phones and tablets. We will therefore also ensure that it is possible for users to freely access this new version of the site (with apologies in advance for any areas of the site that are not yet fully finished or double checked). The site can be accessed here: new.phonicsplay.co.uk.

Our aim is to ensure that existing subscribers aren't disadvantaged and will seek to make sure that after the school closures are over and the site returns to normal, that existing subscribers have additional time added to their subscription.

If you haven't already discovered www.phonicsplaycomics.co.uk you may also find these free decodable comics useful at a time when you can't physically exchange your children's decodable reading books.

We wish you good health and all the very best at this stressful time.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL new.phonicsplay.co.uk. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible. The website's header features the 'PhonicsPlay' logo in colorful letters, a 'Log Out' button, and a vibrant, cartoonish illustration of a planet with various characters like a rocket, a bee, a cat, a dog, a monkey, and a purple alien. Below the header is a yellow banner with a 'Coronavirus Update' section. This section includes a cartoon character of a doctor and text explaining that the site is now free to use during the pandemic. It provides login credentials: Username: march20 and Password: home. The update also mentions that existing subscribers will receive additional time and that decodable comics are available on www.phonicsplaycomics.co.uk. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the search bar, task view, and system tray with the date 25/03/2020 and time 12:24.
