

English – Thursday 23rd April.

THE SHARK IN THE DARK

L.O – Can I write in sentences?

- Use the pictures and sentences to generate ideas verbally (or adult can note down ideas)
- Use the teacher examples and sentences starters to write own sentences.
(Remember - Sentence starters can be adapted to make your sentence flow better.)

The flounders were floundering.
"Here comes the Shark!"

The turtles were terrified.
"Here comes the Shark!"

What do you notice about the noun and the verb in these sentences?

The flounders were floundering.

The turtles were terrified.

They start with the same letter / sound.

Can you think of some different sea creature nouns and verbs which start with the same letter/sound

Can you think of some different sea creature nouns and verbs which start with the same letter/sound.

- dolphin -darting / dashing
- clown fish - cowering
- seahorses -shivering / shaking
- rainbow fish -rushing

Teacher sentence.

The seahorses were shaking.

Sentence 1 – Finish the sentence with a noun and verb starting with the same sound.

The _____ were _____

Challenge – Write a second sentence.

“Oh help!” said the fish.

said is not a very good verb in this sentence.

Can you think of some better, more powerful verbs?

Can you think of some better, more powerful verbs?

shouted

moaned

screamed

cried

yelled gasped

wailed

whimpered

whined

Teacher sentence.

“Oh help!” shouted the seahorses.

Sentence 2 – Finish the sentence using a different word than ‘said’ and use a different sea creature

“Oh help!” _____ the _____.