

Dear Stan,

I am on a trip to West Stafford with my dad and my stepsister. We have seen lots of birds in nests. I have a list for you when we get back.

Overnight, there was a storm. Some big gusts of wind took the tent. We had to stand on the corners and Dad had to stamp the pegs back in.

We went to a market, too. My stepsister got her leg stuck in a stand – it was so funny! Then, I got a bee sting. That was not fun!

I must go now, to see some steep hills. See you soon.
