

Non-chronological report

Fact Files

Monday 4th May

What do we remember about fact files?

Look at the three fact files.

What common features do they have?

Lovely London Eye

What does it look like?

The London Eye is a huge circle that moves around. It looks like a huge Ferris wheel.

Viewing pods

Where is it?

It is next to the river Thames. The London Eye is in the capital city.

This is the London Eye.

What does it do?

The London Eye moves around really slowly and gives people a chance to see the wonderful, lovely view of London.

Huge wheel

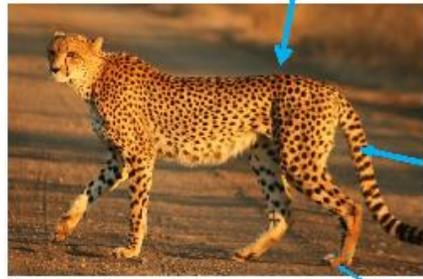

The London Eye is nearly 20 years old!

Cheating Cheetahs

A cheetah is one of the big cats. They are the fastest animal on planet.

What do they look like?

A cheetah has spotty fur all over their body. They have a longer tail than other big cats. They have enormous nostrils to help them breathe when they are running.

Spotty fur

Long tail

This is a cheetah.

Sharp claws

Where do they live?

Cheetahs live in Africa. It is warm and dusty in Africa and cheetahs rest when the sun gets too hot. They hunt and catch other African animals for a tasty tea time treat.

A cheetah has a long tail to help it balance when running!

Huge Humpbacks

Whales are the largest mammals on Earth. Humpback whales are one type of Baleen whale

What does it look like?

They are huge animals. A humpback whale has two blowholes. Humpback whales have a tail fin called a fluke.

Two blowholes

This is a musical humpback whale

Strong tail fin

What do they eat?

They eat krill and small fish. They haven't got any teeth. They are an omnivore which means they eat meat and plants.

Where do they live?

They live in a pod. A pod is the name of a group of whales. They like the warm waters around Tonga.

Female humpback whales are heavier and longer than males.

Heading or title

Cheating Cheetahs

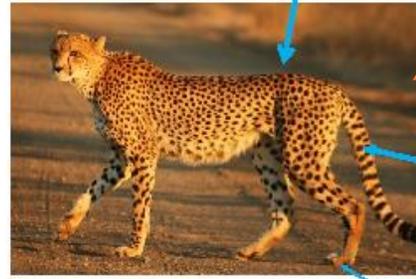

Introduction

A cheetah is one of the big cats. They are the fastest animal on planet.

Subheading or subtitle

What do they look like?

A cheetah has spotty fur all over their body. They have a longer tail than other big cats. They have enormous nostrils to help them breathe when they are running.

This is a cheetah.

Picture with caption

Information in paragraphs

Where do they live?

Cheetahs live in Africa. It is warm and dusty in Africa and cheetahs rest when the sun gets too hot. They hunt and catch other African animals for a tasty tea time treat.

Fact splat

During this week we will be writing a fact file about Blue Whales. We will include:

- Heading
- Introduction
- 3 paragraphs — What do they look like?
 - What do they eat?
 - Where do they live?
- Fact splat
- Picture with caption