

Dear Blair,

I am on a trip to Blackpool with my mum and sister. There has been lots of rain. I forgot to bring a raincoat so I got a bit wet!

We did bring a picnic. I had to brush lots of sand off my lunch and then big blobs of rain fell on us too.

That night, we went to look at the stars. It was such a dark, black night and the stars were so bright. I had to blink to see them.

There were lots of bright lights in High Street too. They seem to blink and bleep along with a song.

From Brad
